Erica Olavario (b. 1994, Manila) is a photo-based artist, printmaker, and filmmaker based in Edmonton, AB. Her dedication lies in crafting immersive digital experiences through the art of visual storytelling. Through her personal branding DIWA, she creates pieces that capture the essence of our collective memory and experience. Her work aims to promote empathy, understanding, and acceptance, while also showcasing the beauty and diversity of different cultures. In particular, she uses her skills and talents to identify and represent the lives of her Filipino diaspora, to connect with her rich heritage and explore the current human condition.
